Jonathan Keyserling is the Senior Vice President, Office of Health Policy and Counsel at the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization. He is also the Executive Director of the Hospice Action Network, the NHPCO's affiliated lobbying organization.

During this session, Jon will analyze the upcoming elections and what it could mean for the hospice community. He'll also try to look ahead to what's coming for hospice providers from a policy perspective.

Jon will also discuss why hospice supporters must be proactive in engaging their members of Congress and lay out a roadmap of best practices in hospice advocacy.

Jon graduated from the University of Virginia with a bachelor of arts in American Government and the University of South Carolina Law School with a Juris Doctorate.
